

North Carolina Polygraph Association

December 2019 NEWSLETTER

“Dedicated to the improvement of the qualifications of Polygraph Examiners through high standards of professional ethics, conduct, education, and achievement.”

Amanda Nosalek, President
Kevin Gregson, Vice-President
John Vanderbilt, Secretary/Treasurer

Andrew Goldstein, Private Sector Representative
Andrew Newsom, Law Enforcement Representative
Frank Suddreth, Training Coordinator
Dustin Nowatka, Board Chairman

The NCPA website is located at: <http://northcarolinapolygraphassociation.org/>

Please visit the website regularly for the latest news and information as soon as it becomes available.

The NCPA is now a 501C3, tax-exempt corporation!

Thanks to attorney and NCPA member Robert Parrot for his help in getting this set up.

Another successful NCPA training conference has come and gone!

The NCPA hosted polygraph training and a members' business meeting in Emerald Isle NC on December 5-6, 2019.

PPSB continuing education approval codes have been applied for but not yet issued. They will be posted on the NCPA website under the “news” section as soon as they are available.

Congratulations to Michael Sumner for winning the early-registration $50 cash prize!

New members:

New member applications approved at the December member meeting were:

- Scott Smith, Sumter County SO in SC
- Jessica Walker, NC License and Theft
- Shea Fentress, Cabarrus County SO
- Martina Holmes, NC SBI
- Sam Williams, Polk County SO
- Janet Jones, CMPD

Proposed NCPA bylaw changes:

There are some NCPA bylaw changes that the executive board proposed and announced at our December 2019 member meeting. The bylaw changes will be voted on at the March 2020 meeting.

Proposed changes center around

- spending approval guidelines and
- changes to lifetime membership rules.

Exact wording proposals will be made available on the NCPA website prior to the March 2020 member meeting.

Upcoming training:

Please remember to register on the NCPA website for all future NCPA training!

Thursday & Friday, March 19 & 20, 2020

Spring 2020 NCPA polygraph training and member meeting
Salisbury, NC

Details are still under construction and will be posted on the NCPA website as soon as they are available.

All NCPA board positions are up for re-election at the March member meeting. Please email any officer if you are interested in running for any board position.

NCPA Apparel:

NCPA Polo shirts can still be ordered on-line: however, the hyperlink on our Association's website will need to be activated to place an order. If you wish to order an NCPA shirt, please send an email to cory.kramer@highpointnc.gov so Cory can have the link opened for this training event. You can have your clothing shipped for a nominal fee or have Cory deliver it to you at the Association meeting.

Secretary/Treasurer's Reports:

Annual membership dues are $50. They are payable January- December of each calendar year and will be payable again January 1 of each year.

You can pay with a credit card via the NCPA website online payment system or mail a check to the NCPA secretary.

Current members please check your information listed on the members page of the NCPA website. If something needs to be corrected, please notify the secretary via email.

Please remember to visit the NCPA website often for the most up to date information.
<http://northcarolinapolygraphassociation.org/>