

North Carolina Polygraph Association

August 2021 NEWSLETTER

“Dedicated to the improvement of the qualifications of Polygraph Examiners through high standards of professional ethics, conduct, education, and achievement.”

Amanda Nosalek, President
Kevin Gregson, Vice-President
John Vanderbilt, Secretary/Treasurer

Andrew Goldstein, Private Sector Representative
Andrew Newsom, Law Enforcement Representative
Frank Suddreth, Training Coordinator
Dustin Nowatka, Board Chairman

The NCPA website is located at: <http://northcarolinapolygraphassociation.org/>

Please visit the website regularly for the latest news and information as soon as it becomes available.

Finally! After a long COVID hiatus... a successful NCPA training conference has come and gone!

The NCPA recently hosted 24 hours of polygraph training in Concord NC. Thank you so much to Concord PD for allowing us to use your facilities and being such a gracious and generous host.

The related PPSB continuing education approval codes are not yet available. They will be posted on the NCPA website as soon as they are known.

New members:

New membership applications approved by the membership in attendance at the August meeting:

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| 1. Mark Kuhlman | 7. Brice Jenkins | 13. Tammie Phillips |
| 2. Brian Hogan | 8. John Porter | 14. William Riley |
| 3. Travis Barkley | 9. Mathew Stemple | 15. Sean Hamilton |
| 4. James Allen | 10. Nelson Corthell | 16. Nicole Johnson |
| 5. Lauren Laughlin | 11. Donald Metts | 17. Jerry Morse |
| 6. Stacey Cox | 12. Jason Stewart | 18. David Crocker |

Life membership:

Bob Drdak was recently awarded as lifetime membership to the NCPA!

Private licensing:

Starting in 2022 anyone seeking a private polygraph license in NC will be afforded two pre-set dates per calendar year to take the state PPSB exam. All exams will be administered in Raleigh. The testing will be standardized. A PPSB representative will be present for the test.

Elections:

All elected NCPA board positions are available in March 2022 for any active NCPA member who might be interested. Please considering serving if you have an interest. Contact any current board member with any questions or to throw your name in the hat.

Upcoming training:

Thursday & Friday, December 2 & 3, 2021
Fall/winter 2021 NCPA polygraph training (and member business meeting)
Speakers and topics are still TBD
NC SBI headquarters, 3320 Garner Road, Raleigh, NC 27610

Details are still being pending and will be posted on the NCPA website as soon as they are available.

This training will be free to attend for all dues-paid NCPA current members.
Lodging and meals will be the responsibility of each individual attendee.

Secretary/Treasurer's Reports:

Annual membership dues are still only $50. They are payable January- December of each calendar year and will be payable again on January 1. You can pay with a credit card via the NCPA website online payment system or mail a check to the NCPA secretary.

Please remember to visit the NCPA website often for the most up to date information.
<http://northcarolinapolygraphassociation.org/>